Patrick Chaffin Kills Bedford Stafford.

Patrick Chaffin shot and killed Bedford Stafford late Thursday afternoon, March 4.

From reports the two men had been engaged in a card game in Abner Chaffin's barn on Aron's Branch, near their homes, and that Stafford was running toward his home when Chaffin shot him. Stafford's cap was found in the barn loft, and his coat was picked up a short distance from the barn, with both sleeves turned partly inside out. Three shots is said to have been fired, two of which hit Stafford, one piercing the little finger and the other striking the hip, coming out thru the bowels, which resulted in his death about two hours later.

The remains were buried in the Stafford cemetery 5 miles south of here Friday afternoon.

The deceased is survived by his wife and 8 small children. Also his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stafford, two brothers, Marlin and John Lowe; four sisters, Mrs. Mary Netherton, Mrs. Belle Stewart, Mrs. Etta Hamlet and Mrs. Lena York, all of this county.

Chaffin is a man of a family, and is the son of Esq. Jim Chaffin and wife.

An indictment was returned by the grand jury, charging Chaffin with first degree murder. He was allowed bond in the sum of $10,000.00, which he made.

Narrow Escape From Death.

Bill Steward, of Double Spgs., mail carrier on the Gainesboro and Double Springs route had a narrow escape from death Wednesday morning, when the team he was driving ran away down Doe creek hill. He held them in the road until reaching the steel bridge one-half mile south of town, where the pole of the buggy hit the bridge. Men who witnessed the scene, say that Steward was thrown 25 feet, landing in the branch, almost striking a rock wall. He was picked up a few minutes later and brought to the Tardy Hotel, where he was given medical attention. Outside of a few scratches and minor bruises Bill was alright, and left this morning (Thursday) for home. The buggy was considerably damaged.
